Rewards for favour

Political- and Presidential favours can be turned in for modules, skinr-materials, boosters, drones, accelerators etc. Trade locations (campaign HQ beacons) can be found in space in Dodixie (watch out for gankers)

Here's a list with current market prices and favour cost (thanks Wolfie!) :

Unlocking Omega rewards on Alpha accounts at the end of the event

For any claimed Alpha reward, the corresponding Omega reward becomes instantly available if the account is upgraded to Omega state. So, Alpha accounts should claim the rewards daily and consider upgrading their account to Omega towards the end of the event with a weekend-fleetpack (3 days of Omega & 50 PLEX, usually available for 3.75$) for example, and claim all Omega rewards as well.

Using code erst would be highly appreciated :)

Reward Tracks

General

The event tracks of the different candidates provide the same rewards except for the final one, which is the chosen candidate's campaign bus (based on a Victorieux Luxury Yacht) .

Event tracks can be progressed by completing steps for various challenges. Most challenges consist of 5 steps, with increasing Political Favor rewards, 50 event points per step, and one Presidential Candidate Favor once step 5 is completed. (The trading challenge doesn't award Political Favor, only a Presidential Candidate Favor at step 5)

Completing the Luminaire Campaign Trail does award a Presidential Candidate Favor too.

One can only get a Presidential Candidate Favor when completing the last step of a specific challenge for the first time on a character, which limits the amount of Presidential Candidate Favor per character to 8.

The item trader for each candidate can be found in Dodixie.

There you should find the following beacons in your overview:

- Moreau's Capsuleer Outreach Center
- Tenzin's Capsuleer Outreach Center
- Roden's Capsuleer Outreach Center

A very detailed item-trader list can be found here

Luminaire Campaign Trail

General

Taking the shortest route (142 jumps) will include LS and NS space. The Campaign Trail challenge will yield a total of 75 Political Favor, 1 Presidential Candidate Favor (only for the first time the trail is completed with a specific character) and 250 points in the event track.

Campaign Trail Starting line is in Luminaire, 16 points of interest have to be visited: (thanks to Twitch viewer uhnboy for the information and list!)
